Supplies

An important part of middle school is developing effective organizational strategies and habits.

The following tools are recommended to help keep you organized:

- 1:1 Device
- Headphones
- Writing Utensils
- Folder/Binder for this specific class

Course Description

Students will look at the ancient world. Students will be given the opportunity to study several ancient civilizations in depth, emphasizing their enduring contributions and the link between contemporary and ancient worlds.

Students will learn through a variety of teaching procedures including: lectures, projects and classroom discussions. Student knowledge will be assessed through reading assignments, hands-on projects and tests.

There will be a major focus on reading and writing in the content area aligned with the Common Core standards.

Students will take full advantage of our 1:1 computers, so make sure that you have all appropriate permissions taken care of through the office.

Units of Study

- River Civilizations
- Egypt
- Greece
- Rome
- China
- India

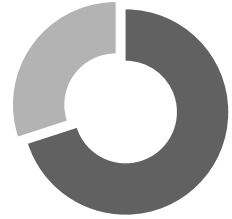

“Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today.” - Malcolm X

Late Work

No late work will be accepted, unless it is missing because of an absence. It is the responsibility of the student to gather and make arrangements for missed work. Refer to the student handbook if you have further questions.

Grading

Daily Assignments (15%)
Projects (25%)
Participation (15%)
Tests (25%)
Writing (20%)

Any student caught plagiarizing on an assignment will receive a zero grade for that assignment, will not be able to make the assignment up and will be issued a detention.

Tardiness

A detention will be issued on the third (3rd) tardy and every tardy following per semester for each class period.

Detentions

Detentions are to be served within five (5) days of the offense or the detention time doubles. Detentions will be served at a time predetermined by Mr. Oldenburg.
